

Ewe Containment Area's Producer Panel

Georgie Keynes, William Hurn and Pete Mitchell

Deb Scammell
Consultant

Why Contain?

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

UNIVERSAL
FEEDERS
www.universalfeeders.com.au

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION · EDUCATION · DESIGN

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

TALKINGLIVESTOCK
NUTRITION • PRODUCTION • HEALTH

Containment Ewe Tour

Wednesday 4th March 2020

Join in on our bus tour showing the many options of how local producers have set up containment ewe areas. Includes information sessions on containment nutrition, condition scoring ewes and soil ground cover assessments.

8:30 – Meet Bus at Brauhaus Hotel Angaston

9:00 – Springhead, 42 Clifton Road, Angaston

10:30 – Keyneton Station, 1057 Stott Highway, Keyneton

12:15 – Lunch at Brauhaus Hotel Angaston (Kindly co-funded by Zoetis)

2:00 – Bruce & Paul Schutz, 701 Keller Road, Point Pass

3:30 – Twin Creek, 346 Twin Creek Road, Bagot Well

COST: BIGG Financial Member- Free Non- Members $25 per person

Please RSVP by Monday 2 March to Deb Scammell 0407790622 or deb@talkinglivestock.com.au

This project is supported by the South Australian Murray-Darling Basin Natural Resources Management Board through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program and NRM levies